MY WORD

By DOROTHY LARIMER

If everyone had Jerry DuMont's enthusiasm for and faith in Albany, we'd see big changes around our town. We did him wrong last week by indicating he was looking for financing for his shopping center on San Pablo. Financing is arranged. He's looking for tenants, particularly for people to open a "good" cafe at the lower level. This is one of Albany's crying needs. It's a shame that our service clubs are to go out of town because there is no cafe large enough to accommodate gatherings of more than 20 or 30 people.

As City Clerk Myrtle McLean was reading the ordinance reclassifying properties for Safety at Monday night's Council meeting, she came to "Block 7" in the property description. "That should be 27, shouldn't it," she asked.

Administrative Officer Turner went to check. Sure enough, Mrs. McLean was right and the mistake was corrected, thereby preventing another delay for the city people.

"I should know," Mrs. McLean remarked, "I live there!"

It is almost a foregone conclusion that the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday followed the lead of the San Francisco and Alameda County boards and approved the passing of the Rapid Transit $792 million bond issue on the November ballot. Certainly nobody can object to the idea of letting the people decide on this matter, but the Transit District is going to have some stiff opposition in Albany. The Citizens Committee on Rapid Transit, headed by Larry Rynnion, Jr., is already mapping its campaign to "Beat the Ballot." Judging from the results of the Times' reader poll last fall, most Albany residents are dead set against the proposed routing along the Santa Fe right of way.

EMERYVILLE INDUSTRIAL Auxiliary will nominate and elect delegates and alternates to the national convention at their meeting at 8:15 p.m. tonight in the Emeryville Veterans Building. The 49th convention will be held August 10-17 in Minneapolis.

BOARD OF EDUCATION SETS RECORD BUDGET, TAX RATE UP 12 CENTS

A record budget of $1,599,518 and a tax rate of $3.66, up 12 cents, is set for a public hearing August 7 by the Board of Education of the Albany Unified School District.

The budget includes an average wage increase of four and a half per cent for 108 full time teachers and 13 administrative personnel and an average increase of four per cent for 42 non-certificated personnel in clerical and maintenance posts.

William Woolworth, director of curriculum, said the reserve fund will sink to a substantial low. Even with the 12-cent tax rate increase, reserves will drop $82,157. This emergency fund should be around 10 percent of the budget, or about $159,000 this year, he said.

Ten cents of the increase is scheduled for beginning a three-year program of installing required fire equipment. Various school buildings do not now meet fire code provisions, according to the state fire marshal's office.

About $66,000 will be needed to meet fire safety requirements in school buildings which are structurally sound. The four buildings at the high school which are not in approved condition may have to be rebuilt or remodeled, so no new equipment will be

Church Council Sets Christian Education Classes

Beginning next September, weekday Christian education classes will be offered fifth and sixth graders from 3:20 to 4:30 p.m. one day a week, the Board of Directors of the Berkeley-Albany Council of Churches has decided.

Classes will be organized on an area basis so children from more than one school may attend, with children going to churches near the schools for the classes. Minimum and maximum enrollment for the classes will be established, with registrations being accepted on a first-come basis.

The emphasis in these classes will be upon a positive introductory study of the Bible presenting the historical background out of which the various writings came, why the particular passages or books were written, and what the authors were trying to communicate. This will require especially well-qualified teachers with both demonstrated ability and sufficient Christian background to teach in the field of religion.

These weekday religious classes this coming school year will be a trial of the feasibility of after-school Christian classes by the Council of Churches, with emphasis upon the highest quality of religious educational experience for the students. It is anticipated that this program will be expanded in future years as experience indicates.

The Board of Education of Albany Unified School District will consider this proposal at a meeting September 11, when board members will once more discuss abandoning release time for education.

NEW DUMONT SHOPPING CENTER—This is an architect's drawing of the new $200,000 shopping center which will soon be under construction on San Pablo Avenue at Clay. Jerry DuMont has had several inquiries since last week's article. Space is in its initial phase of leasing and DuMont is optimistic about completing this attractive addition to Albany this year. Features of the L-shaped building, which is to include 10,000 square feet of office and store space, will be a colored stone front, illuminated waterfall, second floor balconies, lighted roof and parking for 20 cars. DuMont has urged those interested in discussing space in the building to call him at LA 4-7001.

Andrea Wolf, Albany Scout At Button Bay, Calls Home -- Talks 20 Minutes!

The telephone bill at Eldon Wolf's is going to hit a new high if they carry on many more 20-minute conversations with their daughter, Andrea, who is one of 8,500 Girl Scouts currently encamped at Button Bay, Vermont.

Andy called collect Saturday evening and her father recorded the entire conversation. The Albany girl couldn't call earlier, she said, because she and almost every member of the local delegation were so hoarse they couldn't talk. Seems they sang their way from California to Vermont. There was a piano in the club car and the Albany, Kensington and Berkeley girls have five guitars and a ukelele among them, so group singing became the order of the day.

Andy's hat is full of "swaps" and she needs more swaps immediately. The girls left loaded down with California souvenirs to exchange with girls from other states and countries. Her mother is sending blue and gold pennants and some leather so Andy can cut out miniature California bears.

Most of all, Andy begged for color film and flashbulbs. She said she has become the official photographer and her stock was down to one sleeve of bulbs, "and it's only the third day!"

Her father, realizing the cost of photo supplies, urged her to use discretion, gave her a few tips about guide numbers, and promised to air mail more film and bulbs.

She said they had one favorite porter on the special train and the girls presented him with a large pin before they reached Vermont. The local group had sung for the waiters as they were eating dinner and the men had clapped and joined in.

Lions Family Night Thursday

Albany Lions and their families will enjoy Family Night at the Standard Oil Rod and Gun Club tomorrow. Henry Villa is chairman of the steak fry and other events.

Women and children plan to leave about 2 p.m. Lions will go out when they get off work.

Albany Camera Club Meets Thursday

Albany Camera Club will meet Thursday, July 26, 8 p.m., at Veterans Memorial Building, 1325 Portland, Albany. Clement Ralph, president, will preside.

Last month's slide winners were: "A" James Shepard, Ivan Derthick, Cleo Ralph, Ruben Snyder, Jack Hamilton. "B," Laverna Shepard, Elmer Nelson, Phyllis Nelson, Emma Brasen, Laverna Shepard, Special, Al Haven, Cleo Ralph, Eldon Spencer, Cleo Ralph, Phyllis Nelson.

ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER Chuck Seales has a sad story this week. Seems an Albany housewife had a cat which liked to curl up in her dryer and sleep. The other day she turned on the dryer. She remembers hearing a thumping noise, which she believed was a ball one of her children had left in his clothing. You guessed it. The thump was the cat, which came out of orbit quite dead and well done.

Mayor Parker Misquoted

Mayor Joel Parker was quoted out of context in an account of the Board of Supervisors public hearing on Rapid Transit printed in a large Bay Area newspaper.

"Mayor Joel W. Parker, Jr., of Albany pulled a mild surprise in the Alameda County hearing by urging the supervisors to approve placing the issue before the electorate," the story read.

It continued: "Albany has consistently fought the transit district's proposed route through the city and still wants a change."

"But Mayor Joel W. Parker, Jr., emphasized that the measure should go before the people in spite of the route dispute. . . ."

That ain't the way the Albany delegation heard it.

To begin with, Mayor Parker questioned whether or not the district is in a position to make a route change now or after the election in November.

The general manager of the transit district said it was in the realm of possibility, but probably would require concurrence of the Boards of Supervisors in the counties affected as well as the City Councils in Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

Mayor Parker once more expressed the displeasure of the people of Albany with the proposed routing along the Santa Fe right of way.

When transit officials asked Parker if Albany officials would approve of the measure going on the ballot, the Albany Mayor said, "In view of the information received here, we would not oppose it."

Republicans Plan Membership Drive Tonight

Albany Republican Assembly will kick off its annual membership drive at a "work meeting" at 8 p.m. tonight in Cornell cafeteria.

Last year the Assembly received statewide recognition for having the largest increase in membership among state assembly units.

Under the chairmanship of Bert Googins, newly-elected first vice president, the assembly expects an even larger increase in membership this year.

Others on the committee are Dave Fowell, Bill McKenna, Troy and Nellie Lyon, Jim and Shirley Royal, Marion Bailey and President John Johnson.

All Republicans have been urged to attend the meeting, during which refreshments will be served.

COUNCIL TALKS BUDGET AND SALARY HIKES AFTER ROUTINE SESSION

Members of the Albany City Council dispensed with a routine agenda in about 40 minutes Monday night before going into a huddle with representatives of the Civil Service Club to discuss Albany's budget and salary increases.

Finance Chairman Lewis Howell said Tuesday morning that it appears the best the Council will be able to do for city employees is a five and a half per cent increase across the board. Albany police and firemen are now 11 to 13 per cent behind salaries paid in neighboring communities, Howell said, and the Council is as unhappy as are members of the departments that a more substantial increase cannot be made at this time.

"We promised them we will look the situation over again in January," he said. "Perhaps the financial picture will be brighter by then."

At the regular Council meeting Monday night, Councilmen voted unanimously in favor of the resolution ordering the vacation of Bay View Street and the ordinance establishing speed limits on Frontage Road, but they split the way they had voted July 16 on the ordinance reclassifying certain properties from R-1 to CE-3 for Safeway. The original vote was Mayor Joel W. Parker, Jr., Councilman Lewis Howell and Councilman Joe Egenberger in favor; Councilman Joe Carlevaro and Councilman George Hein against.

In other matters, the Council: Approved reimbursement of $13.42 to Police Officer Edward Zentner for repair of his watch, damaged while he was chasing a wanted person; approved recommendations of Administrative Officer James B. Turner concerning a program to develop uniformity in California building laws; held over for two weeks a request by the Alameda County Admission Day Committee of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West for $100;

Filed a communication from the California State Automobile Association congratulating the city, city council, police department, traffic engineering department and other agencies for the fine pedestrian protection record achieved during the past year, and promising a citation to be presented in the near future;

Referred to the budget committee a communication from the Civil Service Board recommending that salaries of policemen and firemen be brought more in line with salaries in adjacent communities;

Filed communications from Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Googins and the Traffic and Safety Commission. Googins expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the Recreation and Police Departments at the All Night Party for graduating seniors, and the commission recommended adoption of speed limits on Frontage Road.

The open discussion will be devoted to ways and means of influencing Village families and all newcomers to shop and feel at home in Albany. Dr. Arthur Longpre is program chairman.

Everyone is invited to attend the luncheon and to feel free to get into the discussion with ideas and comments. Reservations may be made by calling the Chamber at LA 5-1771.

Burning Oiled Papers Thrown On Albany Porch

G. H. McDonald of 729 Stannage was in bed the other night when he heard his front door open and close.

Getting up to investigate, he opened the door to be greeted by a sheet of flames. Some burning embers fell on the carpet. While the papers were still burning, the Fire Department, notified by a neighbor, arrived and extinguished the burning remains of the oiled paper someone had thrown on the McDonald porch.

McDonald was mystified and could think of no reason for the act.

Assistant Fire Chief William Hutt has identified a 17-year-old Albany youth he saw running southbound on Kains from Washington shortly after the alarm sounded. Albany Police are questioning the youth and some of his friends.

BULLETIN

Approved for the ballot by supervisors of San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa counties, the measure will require a 60 per cent vote of the people in order to pass in the fall election.

Transporting freight by air opens up an entirely new market. Chase will describe services offered by the Flying Tigers Air Lines, which operates out of the San Francisco International Airport and will show a short film.

Rotary Club of Albany meets every Tuesday at Spenger's in Berkeley during the noon hour—meetings start at 12:10. Chairman for next Tuesday's meeting will be William G. Woolworth, and Bert Griffin, Rotary President, will preside.

Years ago, we learned that it is not what you sell, but what you give away that keeps customers coming back. For example...

• We always make a free "surface inspection" for customers who plan an outside repainting. It assures satisfactory results.

• We'll visit any home, any time, to help the customer who runs into trouble on his paint job... again, at no charge.

• We sell "Dutch Boy" paints—they're the best! But it still takes "know-how" to assure a first-class paint job. At Solano, it's yours for the asking.

EC Police Chief Speaker for Plaza Merchants

At the regular meeting of the El Cerrito Plaza Merchants' Association Wednesday, July 18, Chief Robert Bowers and Officer Ken Giles of the El Cerrito Police Department spoke on problems of shopping centers.

With nearly a score represented at the meeting, Chief Bowers told the merchant group the El Cerrito Police Department is at their disposal and should be called on any and all occasions. Relating that crime figures show an increase in shopping centers, he urged those attending the meeting to be doubly vigilant in dealing with strangers.

Citing as examples of the co-operation available to the El Cerrito Plaza merchants, Chief Bowers stated the department would rather have 100 false alarms than miss on the next report.

Urging the full use of the El Cerrito Police Department, Chief Bowers said he is prepared to furnish a list of code numbers to be used in calling the police department to report suspicious persons or actual crimes.

Officer Giles outlined the procedure to be followed when anything of suspicion is encountered and asked that all possible information be relayed to the police in the first telephone report. In shoplifting cases, which have been troublesome at El Cerrito Plaza, merchants are requested to obtain license numbers of cars suspects drive and to furnish a good description of the person suspected, also the direction of travel.

In response to a question, Chief Bowers assured the group immediate response will be made available at any time for the merchants of the El Cerrito Plaza.

More On School Board

There. The remaining two cents of the cent increase is earmarked for inaugurating a special class for mentally handicapped children. Board members deferred action until August 7 on the clarification of the status of Lt. Col. James K. Ryan, who has proposed returning to service in the Albany schools.

Korean tents, which are the only Scout tents of that type. Andy's patrol is camping with girls from Wisconsin, Iowa and New York. The ridgepole of the Wisconsin girls' tent broke in driving rain Friday night and all the Scouts helped fix it.

At every meal, the girls move around so they may get better acquainted with the others. The food must be excellent because Andy said she doesn't care if she ever has mashed potatoes or chicken again.

When the girls arrived they were met by a band, signs reading "Greetings Girl Scouts on Your 50th Anniversary," and Boy Scouts to carry their luggage. There is a garden with the letters "J.S." in flowers.

The army built the arena and members of that branch of the service have been very helpful, but the girls are plenty provoked at them for hovering above the showers in helicopters.

"There are no tops on the showers," Andy explained.

Girls from the Berkeley, Albany, Kensington Council may be invited to do their demonstration in the arena, which will be a great honor. In the demonstration, they wear Cal sweatshirts, tell about Berkeley; tell of Indians of this area; sing "Fingers of the Sun," an authentic Indian song; tell of the Spanish influence; sing a Spanish song; tell of the 49ers; dance a hoedown; tell of the University of California, and wind up singing the Cal song. Each girl has a speaking or singing part and accompaniment is provided by aforementioned guitars and ukelele.

Are they having a good time? "It's a blast," says Andy.

Bay Area when he was a young child. He received his early schooling in this area and was a student at Cornell School when it was located on Solano Avenue.

"Jose," as he is called, was employed as a stevedore for Matson Navigation Company before entering the Fire Department. When the Civil Service rank of Fireman-Maintenance was created he was named to this post, being the first to serve. His duties in the department are two-fold. His responsibility is to take care of the alarm system, hydrants and other related duties as well as acting as a hoseman in a regular company.

Harold was the recipient of the medal of valor for his heroic rescue of a distressed person from the San Francisco Bay. DR. RUSSELL P. COPE, San Pablo Avenue veterinarian, reportedly suffered a broken shoulder in a collision on San Pablo July 17. A car driven by O. E. Estrada of San Pablo was in the right lane, turned to the center lane and collided with Cope's automobile. Dr. Cope was treated and released at Herick Hospital. No citations were issued.

Although January seems a long time away, the March of Dimes committee is discussing plans for a big New Year's Eve Ball at the Turf Club. The idea occurred to them during the Police and Firemen's Ball, which attracted so many Albany residents. Sounds like a good idea to have a couple of big dances a year.

firm, and it complements the urn gardens which were established in 1939.

Sunset View was established in 1908, with Anson Stiles Blake, Berkeley pioneer, as one of the founders and board chairman for many years.

The late George P. Baxter became affiliated with the operation in 1918. Today, his son, Walter Baxter, Sr. serves as board chairman, and his grandson, Walter Baxter, Jr. is president of the firm.

The new building was designed by the architectural firm of Cor-lett and Spackman, and was constructed by Marvin Collins of El Cerrito. The furnishings are by Bonyng's Furniture Company of Oakland.

Evangelical Free Church of Berkeley, located at 1918 Blake Street since 1906, will hold its final services in Berkeley on July 19. The congregation is moving August 5 to temporary facilities at the Western Baptist Bible College, Hill and Elm, El Cerrito. Plans are under way to construct a new church building on property acquired by the congregation at 7200 Schmidt Lane, El Cerrito.

Dr. Herbert D. Peterson, Superintendent of the Western District Conference of the Evangelical Free Church and former member of the local congregation, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services this Sunday. Sunday School will be conducted at 9:45 a.m. and a Refreshment Hour will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the Lower Auditorium of the church for visiting friends to meet one another. More than one hundred families who are past members of the church have been invited to return to Berkeley for these special services commemorating the long ministry of the church at the present site.

The Rev. Donald M. Bowman, present pastor of the church, states that the building at 1918 Blake Street has been sold to the Grace Baptist Church of Oakland who will occupy the building after August 1.

Friends from the community are especially invited to attend all of these special services.
